

Check your credit rating

Defero – what do we do?

Defero offers a free service that enables people to get insight and control over their own economy and data.

Features

Credit check – see your credit rating and possible payment remarks

Monitor changes in your credit rating

Get an overview of your interest rates and compare your rate towards other similar groups of people

Get an overview of your existing debt

Make your own budget feature

Estimated value on your house/flat and car

250 000 members

190 000 members

+15 000 members/month

Why should you promote Defero?

- This service is a great way of taking control of your financial situation. Defero is the most known service and the interest is huge, as you can see from the number of members.
- Most people have no or little idea about their own financial rating, Defero presents this to the customer in an easy and understandable way. With this information at hand, customers can make sound financial choices with better terms.
- Easy to convert, the service is totally free and there are no strings attached. In these turbulent financial times, the need for taking control of your data and financial situation is very much top of mind.
- Earn CPL commision on every sign up.